The screenshot shows the Traversy Media YouTube channel page. At the top, there's a banner with the channel's logo (a stylized 'T' inside a circle) and the text "Traversy Media" above the subtitle "> Web Development & Programming Tutorials". Below the banner, the channel's profile information is displayed: "Traversy Media" with a verified checkmark, "@TraversyMedia", and "1.98M subscribers". To the right of this is a "Subscribe" button. A navigation bar below the profile includes links for "HOME", "VIDEOS", "LIVE", "PLAYLISTS", "COMMUNITY", "CHANNELS", "ABOUT", a search icon, and a "More" icon. The main content area features a video thumbnail for "Web Development In 2022 - A Practical Guide" with a play button, timestamp "0:01 / 1:30:51", and other video controls. To the right of the thumbnail, the video title, view count ("840,371 views • 10 months ago"), and a description about the annual guide are shown. There's also a link to a premium eBook and a "READ MORE" button. At the bottom of the page, there are links for "Videos" and "Play all".

In April Treehouse CEO Jason Gilmore had a very unexpected conversation with Keswick Christian School Computer Science teacher Blaine Ruttan. While aware Keswick had adopted Treehouse to supplement their computer science curriculum, the Treehouse team had no idea just how far Blaine and his colleagues at Keswick had gone to create a truly extraordinary STEM learning environment....
